

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

June 25, 2024

Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “White House Council on Supply Chain Resilience”

This executive order would amend policies regarding the White House Council on Supply Chain Resilience. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include enabling the Council to serve as an enduring body whose supply-chain work extends beyond national security issues. Implementing this order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2024. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of State, the Treasury, Defense, the Interior, Agriculture, Commerce, Labor, Health and Human Services, Transportation, Energy, and Homeland Security.
